Toronto Public Library.

Dear Dr. Locke:

Many thanks for your letter. I did not know that the "McGill Daily" was being continued so late in the session. What Peterson said, however, was more of the nature of a joke, I fancy, because he spoke to me about it on Monday when I was down there.

Do you not think that our "Varsity War Supplement" has been as good a piece of advertising as anything McGill has done? I have seen nothing equal to it, and 10,000 of them were issued, and the newspaper comments have been very favourable.

I am just getting back some very pleasant responses to a letter that I sent to each of our graduates across the border on the occasion of the United States entering the war.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
